

In the vicinity of the venue (Albertov 6), there are several restaurants / bistros (see also the map showing their locations) where you can have lunch or diner.

1. Bistro Živina (<https://cs-cz.facebook.com/bistrozivina/>)

A very small bistro with a limited capacity situated directly in the building of the venue (sandwiches, quiches, a soup, 1-2 principal dishes, cakes), not open in evenings.

2. Potrefená husa (<https://www.phalbertov.cz/en/>)

A restaurant, more expensive than the previous one but with many offers, walking distance up to 5 minutes.

3. Thanh Tam

A small Vietnamese bistro with an Asian food, walking distance up to 5 minutes.

4. Plavecká polévka (<http://www.plaveckapolevka.cz/>;
<https://www.facebook.com/Plaveck%C3%A1-Pol%C3%A9vka-461717260555956/>)

A very small but cute bistro / restaurant specialized on soups (There are excellent! Daily, they prepare four vegetarian soups and one soup with a meat.), two very tasty principal dishes (one is always vegetarian), quiches, cakes and focaccia (the best focaccia in Prague). Only for lunches, it is closed in evenings, walking distance up to 8 minutes.

5. U voraře (<https://www.restauraceuvorare.cz/>)

A restaurant with a good classical Czech kitchen, walking distance up to 8 minutes.

6. Hospůdka v Podskalí (<https://www.hospudkavpodskali.cz/>)

A restaurant with a good classical Czech kitchen, walking distance up to 8 minutes.

7. Veganland (<https://www.vegmania.cz/restaurace/veganland-karlovo-namesti/>)

A vegan restaurant at the Charles square (Karlovo náměstí), open during lunch time only. As walking distance is ca 20 minutes, it is better to take a tram from Albertov to Karlovo náměstí (three tram stops).
